

Are you ready to become Ed Leader?

Before you say yes to an Ed Leader role, take this quiz to find out if you've got what it takes

Do you enjoy documentation and program planning?

YES

NO

Do you have a thorough understanding of the National Quality Framework, learning frameworks such as the VEYLDF, and the ECA Code of Ethics?

YES

NO

Do you have knowledge of curriculum development?

YES

NO

Are you confident in presenting ideas and professional development sessions to your colleagues?

YES

NO

Do you see leadership as an opportunity to build the capacity of other educators?

YES

NO

Are you able to explain concepts and ideas to a varied audience?

YES

NO

Are you able to critically reflect on your own practice, and that of others?

YES

NO

How do you respond if your own professional judgement is challenged – are you open to others challenging you?

YES

NO

Are you experienced and confident enough to mentor and guide others?

YES

NO

Do you engage in professional networking?

YES

NO

Are you confident in promoting play-based learning to families?

YES

NO

Are you able to separate personal and professional relationships?

YES

NO

Answered YES to 0-4 questions

↓

A good start, keep focussing on your development

Answered YES to 4-9 questions

↓

You're on your way, remember to take advantage of any opportunities that come up

Answered YES to 9-12 questions

↓

Looks like you're ready to step up and take on an Ed Leader role!

Have questions about becoming an Ed Leader?

Call Community Child Care Association on (03) 9486 3455

