

Meet our school readiness kindergarten coaches

Debbie Cole

Early Childhood Consultant and Trainer

Debbie Cole is a qualified kindergarten teacher with a number of early childhood qualifications, including a Master of Education. She has extensive experience in children’s services, including management of the children’s program at Gowrie Victoria (North Carlton). She has also worked as a teacher and course coordinator at Swinburne University and as a casual lecturer at RMIT.

Karen Glancy

Early Childhood Consultant and Trainer

Karen is an early childhood trainer, coach and mentor. Karen has strong experience working in all sectors of early childhood and has a range of qualifications, including a Bachelor of Early Childhood Studies.

Jenny Burr

Early Childhood Consultant and Trainer

Jenny is a highly experienced early childhood professional. She has held a number of roles such as director, educational leader, and kindergarten teacher of three- and four-year-old children. Jenny is also a qualified early childhood trainer and assessor, and has been a mentor for newly qualified teachers.

Christine Straubinger

Early Childhood Consultant and Trainer

Christine is a qualified trainer and kindergarten teacher. She uses her extensive expertise to provide training and support which links everyday professional practice to the National Quality Framework and beyond.

Sandy Bevan

Early Childhood Consultant and Trainer

Sandy has worked in early childhood services and on projects both in Australia and internationally as a teacher and trainer. She has also worked as an inspector, carrying out inspections in the UK and UAE. Her career as kindergarten and primary principal has included leading and managing schools in Australia, Kuwait, Abu Dhabi, Uganda and Pakistan.

